

STATE LEGISLATIVE
NEWS OF THE WEEK

The following dispatch comes from Phoenix, relative to the work of the legislature:

Governor Hunt this afternoon sent to the senate the names of C. M. Zander, of Maricopa county, Geo. Michelson, of Yuma and Chas. Howe of Cochise, to be members of the state tax commission. The appointments were referred to the finance committee, which later made a report to the senate recommending that the appointments be confirmed but on request of Wood of Yavapai county, action by the senate was postponed. Wood explaining that he was not at the meeting of the finance committee and wished time to consider the appointments. The secretaryship of the commission it is said was offered to John H. Robinson, of Prescott, but he did not accept. Clay Leonard, of Phoenix, it is now said will be tendered the appointment.

Extra Session

Although no announcement has been made by the governor it is generally conceded on all sides that an extra session will be necessary to complete the legislative program and that the proclamation calling such will be issued prior to Thursday when the present session will adjourn. The fact that the senate had no night session tonight is a good indication that the extra session will be called. The governor it is said is now debating the question of whether the extra session shall be called to convene Friday or if he will allow some considerable time to intervene before the solons again meet. The senate program is to give the balance of the time this session to the consideration of house bills now before the senate and their work today was largely along that line.

Kinney Bill Will Fail

In the house this morning when the Kinney bill was read the first time a motion was made and seconded to have the bill laid on the table from which position a two-thirds vote would have been necessary to again get it before the house for consideration. On the request of several members who are opposed to the bill it was agreed to have the bill printed and this was ordered and the motion to table withdrawn. It is hardly likely that the bill will ever get to final passage at this session it being so late in the session when received from the printer that a two-thirds vote for the suspension of the rules will be necessary to place the measure on final passage.

Hunt County Bill

Maddock's Hunt county measure, house bill 157, creating the county of Hunt, was passed by a decided majority. Quite a display of sentiment was manifested in this measure and when the announcement of the vote was made, it was received with applause by the members and Barker rose and paid a high compliment to its author and going to Mr. Maddock's seat gave him a cordial hand shake. Maddock was called on for a speech and thanked the members for their action.

To Give Us Winslow

With all the members present, house bill 154, by Mattox, was passed by the narrowest possible majority. This bill provides for transforming the eastern part of Navajo county, including the town of Winslow, from Navajo to Coconino county—a sort of compensation for the loss of that portion forming Hunt county, should that bill pass the senate and become a law.

Pay For Attaches

By a unanimous resolution of the senate the attaches will be paid this time from the contingent fund of the legislative fund.

Equalization Board Bill Signed

A message from the governor was read in which he notified the senate that he had approved and signed the senate bill creating the state board of equalization.

Exemption Bill Rereferred

The bill from the house exempting $250 of the goods of heads of families from execution, which was being considered in connection with senate bill 31 on the same subject was sent back to the committee on labor.

Strong Anti-Trust Bill Passed

The constitutional mandates committee reported favorably upon house bill 48, an anti-trust act, and after consideration in committee, it was recommended that it take the regular course. This is one of the most drastic anti-monopoly laws ever passed by any legislature. A sharp fight occurred upon the clause that failed to exempt organizations of farmers from the provisions of the act, but was lost, it being the general sense of the senate that if farmers entered into combinations in violation of the spirit of the act with regard to other occupations and productives, they also should suffer. The bill then passed to the third reading in that form.

The New York Politician

What is said to be one of the most fascinating and dashing musical comedies ever seen in this city is scheduled to appear at the Majestic theatre Tuesday night next, May 21st and entitled "The New York Politician." This production which is, strictly speaking, a musical extravaganza, including two big acts, is so genuinely humorous as to fall within the description of "legitimate." The plot is distinctly visible throughout the play; contains an abundance of clever lines, clean comedy and laughable situations, and is interpreted by a number of able artists placed in such a manner that they will bring out a program to its full value. The piece is of an elaborate nature with extensive electrical effects; the dialogue of local and national interest, while the delightful melodies that have been selected will be sure to please all lovers of music. It is the intention of this new organization, The Flagstaff Musical and Dramatic club, to put on a production that will be meritorious in every respect, and no expense has been spared to make this show "one grand success." The company numbers forty people and costumed choruses will be a prominent feature of this production. Reserved seat sale of tickets will open at Marlar's Drug store Friday, May 17th. Prices 50 and 75 cents.

TO SELECT DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION

Flagstaff, Ariz., May 15, 1912. Pursuant to call of Chairman, L. F. Verkamp, the Republican county central committee of Coconino county, met at the court house at Flagstaff on above date for the purpose of deciding the manner of selecting delegates to the State Republican convention, to be held at Tucson, Arizona, on June 3rd, 1912.

On motion duly made and carried the county central committee will meet at Flagstaff on Saturday evening, May 25th, 1912, and select four delegates to the State Republican convention, to be held at Tucson on June 3rd, 1912. At this meeting it was deemed advisable, and it was so ordered, that an invitation be extended to all republicans interested in the success of the republican party to attend the meeting of the county central committee May 25th, at the court house in Flagstaff at eight o'clock p. m., of said date.

By order of Republican central committee.
L. F. VERKAMP,
Chairman.
F. R. FERGUSON,
Vice Chair.
Attest: B. A. CAMERON, Sec.

APPROPRIATION FOR THE NORTHERN ARIZONA NORMAL

The Northern Arizona Normal school has been recognized by the board of control which recommended that $66,000 be granted the institution for new buildings and necessary expenses, the largest amount given any of the schools in the state. The need and possibilities of this school are both recognized by the board of control and while the amount is smaller than the real need it will aid very materially in the enlargement and advancement of one of the greatest institutions of learning in the state. The Sun is pleased to watch the progress of the school and the development of its possibilities. The investment is one of the very best that could be made.

The Lyric Theatre

"In the latter days there shall be wars and rumors of wars" is a quotation that is heralded broadcast over the world, and the people expect that it will be a truth in the latter days. For some months it has been rumored that Flagstaff was to have a new picture and vaudeville theatre, and the rumor has finally resolved itself into a reality, has taken active form and about June 1st the new house opens up for business. The new company, known as The Lyric Theatre Co., is composed of local business men, who are familiar with the business. The latest and best moving picture machine on the market has been purchased for the enterprise, the most excellent film service has been secured, and the entire business will be conducted on a basis to merit the patronage of the public. The Lyric will occupy the room now used by Babbitt Bros., in the Weatherford block, as a furniture department. The building is especially adapted to the new business, and will afford those who attend the entertainments given there an unexcelled view. The acoustic properties of the room are excellent and vocal and instrumental music will be easily rendered and heard with satisfaction. It will be the aim of the new company to give the public a first class place of amusement worthy of patronage. Clean, high class, entertaining, educational, amusing. Watch the columns of The Sun for the opening announcement, which will take place about the first of June.

Base Ball Curves

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Flagstaff base ball club, held in the Sun Parlor of the Weatherford hotel Tuesday evening, May 14th, a permanent re-organization was effected.

With Leo F. Verkamp in the chair, Fred Lynch, under whose able management this year's base ball team has already made such a good showing, was unanimously elected Manager; Frank W. Payne was elected treasurer, and Tom Maloney, the live-wire first-sacker, was chosen captain of the team. The umpires for the season are Phil and George Rickel, and all in this section of the state who follow the game will agree that as official arbiters the Rickels are hard to beat. William W. Walker was elected ground keeper; and "Billy" Kramer, press agent, with orders to follow the prescribed Base-Ball vernacular.

Chairman Verkamp, on vote of meeting, appointed the Two Thomases, Bowman, and Maloney, as a Finance committee to look after the raising of funds for the maintenance of the Club. In line with this action, a committee composed of Edgar Brown, Murray Brannen and Larry Quinlan, was appointed to make final arrangements for a ball to be given in the Majestic Theatre, Friday evening, May 24th, under the auspices of the Base-Ball Club, the proceeds to go towards the purchase of new uniforms for the team.

Local fandom, in the two games played and won by this year's team, has had ample opportunity to size up the 1912 squad. They are an aggregation of good, clean local boys, full of snap and enthusiasm, on the job every moment of the game, and a credit to the Skylight City. They are entitled to, and no doubt will have, the hearty support and encouragement of all interested in the healthy advertisement and growth of our city.

Next Sunday, May 19th, the Flagstaff Base Ball Team plays at Williams. The fans look forward to a close contest, as it was the Williams warriors who two weeks ago gave us that exciting, hair-raising Marathon of eleven innings before permitting our own Handsome Hansen to bring home the victory with the sixth run. "Come on along" down to Williams Sunday morning on No. 1, and help swell the crowd and the noise at the game.

FLAGSTAFF WINS
FROM WINSLOW TEAM

The Game Last Sunday Was a Hummer From Start to Finish Score 8 to 2 in Favor of Flag

"Cy Seymour" Boyd, hurler of the pill, backed by eight stalwart Flagstaff athletes, took the Flagstaff diamond Sunday, against the Winslow Braves—decision, Flagstaff 8, Winslow 2. "Cy" heaved some base ball, allowing but two hits to the ninth, and four all counted. Eleven of the foe "bit the dust" by the strike-out route, and one man walked. Flagstaff was particularly aggressive with the bludgeon. Excepting one inning the visitors played good ball. The game, like one of previous Sunday, was strictly a gentlemanly encounter, and the work of Tom Bowman with the indicator was good. Many Ladies were present and added dignity to the occasion.

Flagstaff team will play return engagements at Williams next Sunday, and at Winslow the Sunday following.

A special rate of $1.90 for the round trip, has been arranged to Williams, and the home team want a good bunch of rooters to accompany them to the camp of the enemy.

The Flagstaff band was there, too, and rendered appropriate music. The helping hand extended by the band boys in these games is much appreciated by the management and players.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK
AT THE N. A. N. S.

The closing days of a term at the educational institutions of the country are always interesting. The closing of a successful term of school marks an epoch in the life of the pupil as well as the history of the school. Last week was commencement week at the Northern Arizona Normal school of this place. All through the term it was known that the pupils were making excellent progress and the ambition of the teachers increased with the interest of the pupils, and as the term drew near a close it was manifest that pupil and teachers were delighted with the year's work.

The commencement exercises began on Sunday evening when Dr. R. H. H. Blome delivered the baccalaureate address at Normal hall to a large and appreciative company of visitors in addition to the graduating class. The address was scholarly, well directed and delivered in a most pleasing and effective manner. All who were present speak in highest terms of the effort. The program of the evening was an excellent one.

Following the Sunday evening service the teachers and pupils of the training department of the normal enjoyed a "May festival," at the normal hall on Tuesday evening, May 7, at 8 o'clock. The evening was enjoyed by all, and the excellent program was rendered in a faultless manner.

The commencement exercises followed the above program on Thursday morning, May 9th, at the normal school hall, 10 o'clock. The program was as follows: Tannhauser March, Miss Flora Jensen; Chorus, Let Our Voices Be Glad; Invocation, Rev. C. M. Ross; Chorus, Who Is Sylvia? Address, Honorable Fred Cleveland; Girls' Chorus, Voices of the Woods; Presentation of Diplomas. Supt. of Public Instruction, C. O. Case; Chorus, Carmina Waltz Song.

The address of Hon. Fred Cleveland was highly appreciated as was the short but scholarly talk by C. O. Case, superintendent of public instruction.

Following is a list of those who formed the graduating class:

Alice I. Anderson, Joseph Brinkerhoff, Laura Baird, Junius Gibbons, Lura Kinsey, Fannie L. Marks, Mary Rose McGinnis, Lorine McPherson, Fannie Pierce, Callie Mae Slaughter, Jesse M. Smith, Leona Tracey, Augusta Treat, Harriett Duffy, Alice Duffy, Cecille Holden.

It has been customary to offer prizes each year for the best graduation theme, and this year the D. Wallace medal was awarded to Fannie Marks. The prize offered each year by M. I. Powers, of $25 in gold, for the best general average in studies, was awarded to Miss Sarah McDonald and Miss Mary Coulson, whose grades were exactly the same. The money was divided between the two young ladies.

After the close of the week's exercises the pupils and teachers departed for all points on the compass to spend the summer vacations.

NOTES

Prof. Adames will visit his old home in Illinois, after which he will go to a summer school in Wisconsin, returning in time to take up his work again in the fall.

Dr. Blome has gone to Panama where he will visit a short time before returning to take up the work in the summer school.

Miss Caldwell has gone to Albuquerque to visit with her mother, but will return and teach again this year.

Miss Turner will spend the summer in Flagstaff, after which she will go to the Tempe normal school, where she will be employed as critic teacher.

Miss Jones will remain in Flagstaff, and will teach again this year in the normal.

Miss Botts will spend a short vacation in Los Angeles, returning to engage in the work of the summer school.

Miss Erion will visit relatives and friends in Kentucky until the opening of the fall term.

Mr. Adams, brother of Prof. Adams will teach in the latter's place in the summer school.

Mrs. DesVoignes has been employed as critic teacher for next year, and comes very highly recommended.

The Alumni Association enjoyed an outing to the reservoir in the evening. All report a most excellent time.

The term has been an exceedingly profitable one.
